FINANCIAL DATA REQUESTS

EvapTech, Inc. is a privately held corporation. As a private company, EvapTech, Inc. does not publish financial information. Information such as historical revenue, project backlog, and similar information is considered confidential.

Requests for confidential financial information will require a mutual non-disclosure agreement to be in place between your company and Evapco, Inc. & subs, if audited results are required. Please contact EvapTech's Controller (contact information below) with your request and include a copy of an executed mutual non-disclosure agreement. If one is not already in place, please complete and attach the accompanying Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement.

Upon receipt of the request and executed Mutual NDA, the financial information may be provided by secure, confidential, self-destructing email to those with Microsoft 365 Message Encryption. Alternatively, a web-conference may be hosted to provide the requested information.
